As regards the Durbar, Dept^l Offs may hold them in Dt Hd. Quarters, Amildars in Taluk Hd Quarters and persons selected by the D.C. in other places. I do not think it is worth while reading the address to H.H. prescribed by the Committee & since advance copies of H H's Reply cannot possibly be supplied. In place of the address, H H's message, if one is finally approved, may be read.

A I spoke to Sir K.P. Puttanna Chetti about this. He thinks the Durbar may begin with the reading of H. H's message. Thereafter he would have the people's address to His Highness and the function concluded by the reading of H. H's reply to the people's address. Will this meet with approval?
